

The Knight eighty-thro

Scarlet Knights

Class of '82 presents...

Friendship is a union of spirits, a marriage of hearts, and the bond thereof of virtue.

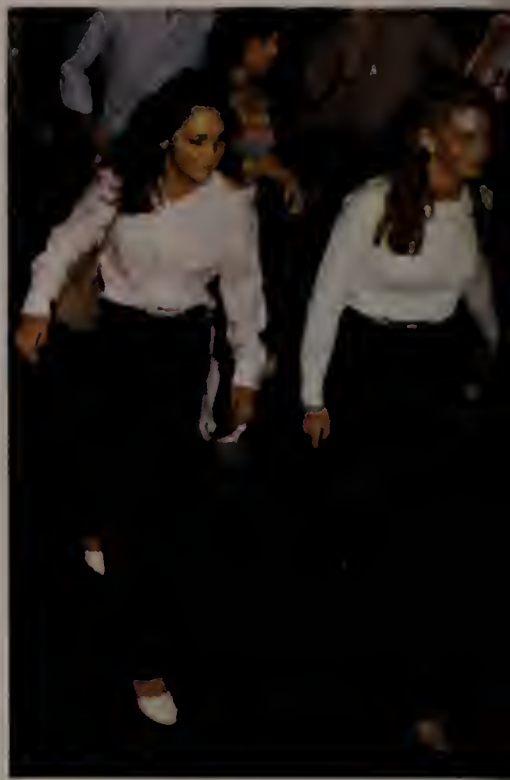

A father's a treasure; a brother is a comfort;
a friend is both.

Howebeit rare true love is, true friendship is eben rarer.

A friend may well be reckoned the masterpiece of nature.

A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere.

What is a friend? I will tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself.

Friendship Is :

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

Knight Stalkers

The success of The Knight is dependent on its hardworking staff members. The staff compiles materials and sells yearbooks. They also write copy and work on final layouts. Members meet twice a week throughout the year in order to meet their deadlines. The objective of the yearbook is to accurately represent the year in retrospect at N.A.H.S. The Knight is under the direction of advisor Miss Connor and co-editors-in-chief Rita Gavelis and Margaret Weigel.

Drama Enthusiasm Soars

The Drama Club, under the direction of Mrs. Maloney-Brown, is committed to producing high-quality theatre for our school and the community. With last year's highly successful "Godspell" and this year's "Anything Goes," interest has taken a definite upswing. The students gain a lot by exploring their creative talents and gaining personal insights while having a good time.

Players Produce Pride

This year the Concert and Stage Bands, conducted by Miss Beth Graham, have demonstrated admirable professionalism with their outstanding performances. Their music includes selections from dreamy sonatas to roaring renditions of 40's jazz hits. Both groups' morale has grown by leaps and bounds and the public and school have responded positively to this new feeling of pride in the band.

Lauds for Languages

The French, German, Latin and Spanish Honor Societies are comprised of students who have achieved academic excellence in a particular language. The basic goals of these groups are to promote foreign cultures and provide an outlet for those who take an active interest in this area. Some of the services these organizations provide are bake sales, tutorial programs, concerts and the annual International Banquet. Their advisors are various members of the Foreign Language Department.

Scholarly Successes

For the members of the National Honor Society, the spring induction banquet is always one of the highlights of the year. Students are then honored for their superior academic achievement, the main requirement for acceptance. This year, the members sponsored the Red Cross blood drive and a bake sale to raise money for the scholarship fund, continuing the noble tradition of school and community service.

Council Cares

Under the direction of Mr. Spadafore, the Student Council meets once a week to review important issues concerning the school. The main objective of the council is to express the views of the student body to the administration. One of the council's major concerns is to raise money for various school and community organizations. Some of these are organizing a food and clothing drive for the Good Samaritan program, sponsoring last May's Spadafore Blues Brother concert and creating the idea for Spirit Week.

International Interest

The American Field Service is one of the most popular organizations at N.A.H.S. Under the direction of Mr. Minihan, the club aims to expose students to different cultures through various exchange programs. Karen Barbera, and Grad Rosenbaum, through the A.F.S., spent their summer last year in Bolivia and Thailand, respectively. This year, the club is hosting two exchange students: Tania Melo, a native Brazilian, and Harald Eliassen, who hails from Norway.

And the Beat Goes On

Hard work and enthusiasm are what made the band outstanding this year. Under the directorship of Miss Beth Graham, and with the help of major musicians Mike Healy, Margaret Weigel, Brenda Poutenis, Pam Cole and drum major Mike DeNitto, the band performed at football games, pep rallies, and several parades. Its music really sparked school spirit.

Girls Face Tough Competition

Despite an unimpressive season, the lady Knights worked hard this fall. Coached by Miss Rachel Petralito and led by co-captains Sue Montanaro and Sue Peterson, the team showed improvement as well as individual success.

Credited for outstanding team effort are Chris Willis, Mary Lou Caron, Devrie Lafreniere, Alice Peck, and Tina Doherty. Sue Montanaro had an outstanding season as an offensive standout, and Rebecca Melvin was a great asset to the team's defense. Sue Peterson played a terrific season as goalie, and Sue Montanaro was elected to the All-Star Team.

Knights Win C.A.L. Championship

This year the Knights posted an impressive 8-1-1 record to place them on top of the Cape Ann League. For the first time in the history of North Andover High School, the team won their league championship. Coached by Mr. Michael Cavanaugh and captained by tri-captains Gary Laurendeau, Dan McConaghy, and Fred Finnocchiario, the team was both offensively and defensively quite good. Outstanding contributions were made by Robbie Nazarian, John Shields, Greg Bleszinski, David Camire, John Vincent and Tom Reusch.

Team Tops League

This year's J.V. football team, under the guidance of Coach McDonald, compiled an impressive record which placed them at the top of the Cape Ann League. The team had a strong, unweilding offensive line rooted by Jeff Smeltzer at tackle and Mike Beirne at guard which allowed quarterback Bill Herrmann to move consistently downfield. The defense, spearheaded by Peter Killilea and Rick Mellilo, successfully contained rival offenses.

Division II State Champions

This year's Cross Country Team coached by Mr. John Kelley ended with an impressive 10-3 record winning the Cape Ann League Championship and also capturing the All-State Division III title. Although Co-captains Jim Watson and Mark Hamilton had rough seasons, their contributions were outstanding. Juniors Joe McDonald and Rich Dellechaie played a significant part in the success of the team. Kevin Ronan and Jim Kilcoyne greatly improved this year, helping the Harriers to their strong finish.

Soccer Team Qualifies for States

This year, for the first time, the North Andover varsity soccer team qualified for the state tournament with an outstanding record of 7-2-1. The team's success is a result of Coach DiMarco's driving ambition and many cold afternoon workouts after school. The enthusiastic team was led by tri-captains Chris Starr, Bob Kilcoyne and Rick Donald. Fullback Ed Peck, goalie Chris Starr and right wing Jim Iannazzi were chosen as league all-stars. Noteworthy contributions were given by Adam Wright and John Ozberak.

Team Goes to the States

The Junior Varsity Soccer Team, despite a lack of size, fared well in the '81 fall season, ending with a 4-6 record. The team was coached by Steve Murgo, a former N.A.H.S. booter himself. Net minder Ray Sullivan and fullbacks Walter Wilson and Peter Fragala backboneed the team's defense. Inside, Pat Connolly, forwards David Nixon and Rich Testa were key weapons in the team's artillery.

New Team for Girls

This year was the first year for girls' soccer. The team's co-captains Linda Shottes and Kelley Comerford provided the team with great enthusiasm and performed an outstanding job as leaders for the team's first season. Other assets were goalie Kelli Anderson and forward Chris Chenard. Coach Frank Amato provided inspiration to the team, and team members are looking forward to his return next year. The girls' record was 4-10.

Hoopsters End At 11-9

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team, coached by Mr. Parker, ended the season with a better-than-average record of 11 wins and 9 losses. The young team, paced by Sue Breen, Jean Bushnell and Kris Uttley, has definite potential and power. With the return of many of the players, the team can look forward to continued success in the future.

Bernardin and Rohde Lead Team

Highly-ranked North Andover Varsity Basketball team placed a healthy second in the Cape Ann League and qualified for the state tournament. This year's squad, coached by Mr. Licare, posted a final regular season record of 14-4. With their legendary defense, the Knights were able to crush most of their opponents handily. Mark Bernardin, Dick Reese and Chris Rohde led the fine team.

What do you mean, you don't like my tie??

Friendship

“In life, the most essential thing for happiness is the gift of friendship”

— Sir William Osler
